1 THREE STEPS WITH SENTENCE STARTERS

SITUATION	BEHAVIOR	IMPACT
when, where	seen, heard	the result
"In [meeting, project, or call] on [day]..."	"...you [what a camera would record]..."	"...and [the effect on the work, the team, or people]."

Then ask the employee:
"How did that look from your side?"

2 BEFORE YOU TALK...

- ☐ Is it private?
- ☐ Is it soon, within a day or two of the even?
- ☐ Do I have one specific example?
- ☐ Do I know what change I am asking for?
- ☐ Am I ready to listen?

3 THE CAMERA TEST

INSTEAD OF A JUDGMENT	DESCRIBE THE BEHAVIOR
"Rude"	"You talked over Chris twice."
"Unreliable"	"The report arrived two days after the deadline we agreed."
"Not a team player"	"You worked alone during Thursday's planning session."

4 IF THEY GET DEFENSIVE

Acknowledge the feeling:
"I hear that this is frustrating."

Stay on the example:
"I'm focused on this situation."

Ask for their view:
"What's your side of it?"

Agree on a next step together.
